

Nobuyasu Uemura :

Managing Director,
Capitas Consulting Corporation

Managing Director of Capitas Consulting Corporation where he is responsible for supporting and encouraging ERM framework development for both domestic and foreign insurers since 2012. He also provides analytical information about an insurance industry.

He was working in Financial Services Agency (FSA) Japan from April 2010 to October 2012, as a Specialist for insurer's ERM, mainly in charge of risk analysis of insurance industry and upgrading of Japan's solvency regulations, such as considering an introduction of ORSA, Own Risk and Solvency Assessment.

Prior to joining FSA Japan, working at Rating and Investment Information, Inc. (R&I) for an analyst, mainly in charge of Japanese life and non-life insurance industry since 1997, one of the most experienced and influential analyst in this field in Japan, and working at Sompo Japan Nipponkoa, one of the major non-life insurance company, mainly asset management related job since 1990. Publishing many books about insurance industry and risk management, also many reports and lectures. "The failure without management : Truths behind the Seiho crisis in the Heisei era ", published by Nikkei Publishing Inc. on September, 2008.

Chartered Member of the Security Analysts Association of Japan, an advisor of the ERM committee in the Institute of Actuaries of Japan, a member of the Japanese Society of Insurance Science, and so on.

Ph. D. in Waseda university in 2008, a study of insurer's bankruptcy in Japan.