

Nobuyuki Muto :

Manager
Government Relations Department
Dai-ichi Life Insurance Company

Nobuyuki Muto is a Manager of the Government Relations Department at Dai-ichi Life Insurance Company: one of the leading life insurance companies in Japan with 5 group companies operating in the Asia Pacific region. He is currently responsible for coordination and negotiations regarding domestic regulatory issues related to insurance business, such as insurance solicitation rules, deregulation of the institutional framework for insurance groups, and principles of customer-oriented business conduct. Prior to his 8 years of experience in the Government Relations Department, he belonged to the Claims Department where he engaged in prompt and accurate payment of insurance benefits. He is a graduate of The University of Tokyo (Faculty of Law). He speaks Japanese, English and some French.