

Wan Lihong :

Senior Manager,
China Life Insurance Company. FLMI

Ms. Wan is currently a senior manager of China Life Insurance Company. She has worked in China insurance industry for over 24 years and has accumulated extensive experience in insurance research and operation. In 1993, Ms. Wan started her career as an editor of INSURANCE STUDIES Journal sponsored by the Insurance Institute of China. In 1998, she published her first monograph about life insurance fraud and it's prevention. In 2008, she worked in China Insurance Regulatory Commission (CIRC) , and launched a pilot about China Rural Micro-insurance Project. From 2011 to 2014, she was appointed Deputy General Manager of Jiangsu Suzhou Branch of China Life Insurance Company. Over the years, She published dozens of life insurance subject papers. Ms. Wan achieved her economics doctorate from Wuhan University. She is also a member of America Life Office Management Association.