

Travel Expenses Support for Seminar Participants

Guideline for “OLIS 2026 Autumn”

Objectives: This support program is to award full or partial reimbursement for travel expenses to the selected participants, whose companies/organizations have a budget difficulty. We are to fulfill our purpose of organization foundation, aiming to widely contribute to the development of life insurance in Asia by training people who wish to study life insurance and by deepening international mutual understanding with this program.

1. Support details

As set forth in the Outlines of OLIS 2026 Autumn (13. Travel Expenses Support Program), Oriental Life Insurance Cultural Development Center shall bear the full or partial cost of a round-trip airplane ticket for a company/organization if we approve its application for financial assistance. The amount we bear shall be the actual cost of the purchased ticket. Note, however, that we shall set the maximum reimbursable amount for each country based on the lowest available rate at the time of screening. We shall reimburse a company/organization for the actual ticket purchased or the maximum reimbursable amount, whichever is less. As a reference, the maximum amount based on the rate as of June 24, 2026, is attached to this guideline. Please see the Reference page.

2. Applicable Ticket

The reimbursable tickets shall be for flights arriving at Narita Airport between 7:00 and 15:00 on October 21, 2026, or at Haneda Airport between 8:00 and 16:00 on October 21, 2026.

3. Application

Applications submitted by Friday, August 7 are qualified for screening.

4. Screening

(1) Only those applications that are fully completed and submitted by the deadline shall be considered for screening. The balance of the number of participants among countries and companies/organizations is comprehensively examined at the secretariat of the foundation, and the final decision shall be made by the president of OLICD Center. Its total costs shall not exceed an annual budget.

- (2) Screening shall be performed after approving applicants not applying for TES. In other words, the applicants not applying for TES fill the seats first and the remaining seats go to the applicants applying for TES. The applicants shall be notified of the results after the screening.

5. Applying process

Please fill out the Support Request Form and send it to our office by the deadline. The form is available to download from the seminar's online application page of the OLICD Center's website, www.olis.or.jp/e/.

6. Seminar Report

Approved recipients are required to submit a "Seminar Report" within two weeks after the seminar. The report should be about 1 page, single-spaced, on A4-size paper, and written in English.

7. Payment Method

Reimbursement shall be remitted to the designated bank account of the company/organization after the participant has satisfactorily completed the seminar and upon submission of

- (1) Seminar report
- (2) Reimbursement request form
- (3) Invoice/receipt from a travel agency.

8. Notes on application

If the application form contains incorrect information or the participant violates our regulations during the seminar period, we may withdraw support from the participant.
